

Springwell Golden Voices

Vacancy for Accompanist

About Us

We are a friendly and welcoming community choir for adults aged 55 and over, bringing people together through music, friendship, and performance. Our choir enjoys a varied repertoire and rehearses in a relaxed, supportive atmosphere where participation and enjoyment are at the heart of what we do.

The Role

We are looking for an enthusiastic and reliable pianist to accompany our weekly choir rehearsals and occasional performances.

This is an ideal opportunity for someone who enjoys working with community groups and values the social and wellbeing benefits of music.

Responsibilities

- Provide piano accompaniment during weekly rehearsals
- Support the Musical Director and choir members during rehearsals
- Play for occasional concerts and community events
- Assist with learning tracks or rehearsal support where appropriate
- Contribute to a warm and encouraging rehearsal environment

About You

The successful candidate will:

- Be a confident pianist with strong sight-reading skills
- Have experience accompanying singers or choirs
- Be reliable, patient, and approachable
- Enjoy working with older adults in a community setting
- Be able to adapt to a range of musical styles and abilities
- Be able to open score read

Rehearsal Details

- Day/Time: Thursdays 10:30 to 12:30
- Location: Craiglockhart Parish Church
- Start Date: 13th August 2026
- Fee: Payment is £29.50 per hour

How to Apply

Please send a short expression of interest outlining your experience, along with any relevant CV or references, to:

Marion Marshall, Old Farm Court, 311/1 Colinton Road, Edinburgh. EH13 0NT

Closing Date: 18th June 2026

We welcome applications from musicians of all backgrounds and are committed to creating an inclusive and supportive environment for all.
